Day 1 | Home – Dubai

THURSDAY 6 MAY

We commence the tour with an overnight flight to Dubai.

Day 2 | Dubai

FRIDAY 7 MAY (D)

We arrive in Dubai early this morning and after clearing Customs and Immigration formalities, we are met and transferred to our hotel for an over-night stay. There is time to rest up after the flight until mid-afternoon when we visit the Museum of the Future. One of Dubai's most famous landmarks, the museum takes pride of place along the city's superhighway, Sheikh Zayed Road. Founded by the Dubai Future Foundation and launched on 22 February 2022, the museum explores how society could evolve in the coming decades using science and technology. Each floor of the museum is designed like an expansive, interactive movie set, brought to life by expert storytellers, technologists and visionary artists. There is time for exploration before we return to the hotel for dinner this evening.

Day 3 | Dubai - Baku

SATURDAY 8 MAY (B.D)

Late morning, we transfer to the airport to join our short flight to Baku. On arrival, we are met and transferred to our hotel for a 3-night stay. Enjoy a welcome dinner together this evening.

Day 4 | Baku

SUNDAY 9 MAY (B.L.D)

Today we travel southwest of Baku to Gobustan, home to the UNESCO-listed Gobustan Rock Art Cultural Landscape. We visit the fascinating Rock Art Museum before exploring the open-air reserve, where thousands of ancient rock carvings provide a remarkable glimpse into human life dating back thousands of years.

We then continue to one of Azerbaijan's most unusual natural attractions – the famous mud volcanoes. Reaching this fascinating landscape is an experience in itself, as we travel by old Soviet-style vehicles (subject to availability, otherwise by jeep) across the rugged terrain to see these bubbling natural formations up close.

Returning to Baku, we enjoy lunch before visiting the Azerbaijan Carpet Museum, home to the world's largest collection of Azerbaijani carpets. Its impressive displays showcase the country's rich carpet-making heritage, with examples from different periods featuring a variety of traditional weaving techniques, patterns and materials.

We finish our sightseeing with a visit to the striking Heydar Aliyev Centre, one of Baku's most recognisable examples of contemporary architecture. Designed by renowned Iraqi-British architect Zaha Hadid, the building is famous for its sweeping curves and distinctive flowing design and has become an iconic symbol of modern Baku.

Day 5 | Baku

MONDAY 10 MAY (B.L.D)

Today we continue our exploration of Baku, beginning at Highland Park, where we enjoy panoramic views across the city and the Caspian Sea. We then discover Baku's UNESCO-listed Old City, wandering through its atmospheric narrow streets and exploring centuries of history within the ancient city walls. Highlights include historic baths and mosques, the iconic Maiden Tower, old caravanserais once used by travelling merchants, and a visit to the impressive Palace of the Shirvanshahs.

After lunch, we travel to the Absheron Peninsula to discover two of Azerbaijan's most fascinating landmarks associated with the region's natural reserves of gas and its ancient connection with fire. We visit Ateshgah, the historic Fire Temple, before continuing to Yanar Dag, or 'Burning Mountain', where natural gas escaping through the earth has created flames that continuously burn along the hillside.

Day 6 | Baku – Shamahi -Sheki

TUESDAY 11 MAY (B.L.D)

After breakfast, we check out of our hotel and travel northwest through Azerbaijan's ever-changing countryside towards the historic town of Sheki. Today's scenic journey takes us through a remarkable variety of landscapes, from semi-desert plains and lush forests to the foothills of the Caucasus Mountains.

Our first stop is the village of Maraza, where we visit the fascinating Diri Baba Mausoleum, dramatically built into the side of a rocky cliff. We then continue to Shamakhi, the former capital of the Shirvanshah dynasty, to visit the historic Juma Mosque, one of Azerbaijan's most important places of worship.

From here, we take a spectacular mountain road to the remote village of Lahic. Isolated by its mountainous setting, Lahic has preserved its distinctive culture, traditions and language over the centuries. The village is particularly renowned for its skilled craftspeople and centuries-old tradition of copperwork, and we have time to explore its charming cobbled streets and artisan workshops. Later, we continue our journey to Sheki, one of Azerbaijan's oldest and most charming destinations, where we settle in for our stay.

Please note: Our visit to Lahic is subject to weather and road conditions. In the event the mountain road is not passable, an alternative arrangement will be made.

Day 7 | Sheki

WEDNESDAY 12 MAY (B.L.D)

After breakfast, we begin our exploration of Sheki, once an important trading centre along the ancient Silk Road and today one of Azerbaijan's most charming towns. We wander through the atmospheric old town, visiting its colourful bazaar and historic Caravanserai before continuing to the magnificent Sheki Khan's Palace, renowned for its intricate wall paintings and beautiful Shebeke stained-glass windows.

We then have the opportunity to try our hand at the traditional art of Shebeke during a visit to a local glass workshop, where we learn more about this intricate centuries-old craft.

After lunch, we travel a short distance to the picturesque village of Kish, where we visit its ancient Albanian-Christian church, dating from the 11th–12th centuries. We finish our visit in true local style, enjoying a cup of fragrant Azerbaijani tea in a nearby village home before returning to Sheki.

Day 8 | Sheki - Telavi

THURSDAY 13 MAY (B.L.D)

Today we farewell Azerbaijan and cross the border into neighbouring Georgia, where we are warmly welcomed by our Georgian guide. From here, we journey into Kakheti, the heart of Georgia's celebrated wine country. Surrounded by vineyards and picturesque countryside, we discover not only the wines for which the region is famous, but also the traditions, history and everyday life that make Kakheti so special.

A highlight of our day is a visit to one of the country's few remaining traditional qvevri makers. Here, we learn about the ancient Georgian method of producing wine in large clay vessels buried beneath the ground – a tradition that has been practised for thousands of years and is recognised by UNESCO as part of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Naturally, there will also be an opportunity to sample some locally produced wines, along with chacha, Georgia's traditional grape spirit, providing a wonderful introduction to the country's renowned wine culture and hospitality.

Day 9 |Kakheti Region

FRIDAY 14 MAY (B.L.D)

This morning, we visit a local farmers' market before continuing to the impressive 11th-century Alaverdi Cathedral. Later, we visit a local winery, where an engaging museum provides an insight into Georgia's fascinating winemaking traditions and techniques. Naturally, there will also be an opportunity to sample a selection of locally produced wines made using traditional Georgian methods.

At the winery we'll take part in preparing several traditional Georgian dishes: Khinkali — dumplings filled with meat and broth, and Khachapuri — a savory cheese-filled bread. We'll also try making Churchkhela, a local delicacy made from grape juice and walnuts. And of course, we'll bake our own bread and enjoy eating it fresh!

Our last stop before returning to the hotel will be the estate of the 19th century poet and nobleman Aleksandre Chavchavadze in Tsinandali (closed on Mondays). His house, the main house, is also a museum. The aristocratic Chavchavadze family was one of the most talented and powerful families throughout Georgia. This place was a centre of intellectual life and is much frequented by famous Georgian and foreign writers (including Alexander Dumas). Aleksandre offered his guests fine wines made at his estate. He was the one who possessed the oldest and largest winery in Georgia, where he combined European and Georgian winemaking traditions. The house is surrounded by beautiful gardens covering 18 hectares. They contain a variety of European, Asian and American plants and a walk in the park is also a must. Furthermore, there is also a small labyrinth with a wishing tree in the middle, which is worth visiting.

Day 10 |Telavi - Tbilisi

SATURDAY 15 MAY (B.L.D)

Today we drive towards Sighnaghi but first make a stop at the Bodbe Monastery (4th–17th century), located less than five minutes from the town. The monastery is still active today and ranks among the most important pilgrimage sites in Georgia, thanks to its association with St. Nino, the 4th-century female evangelist of the Georgians, whose remains buried here.

Our journey then takes us to the fortified town of Sighnaghi (18th century), often compared to an Italian medieval hill town. Surrounded by 4.5 kilometers of defensive walls enclosing over 40 hectares, it is one of the largest fully walled cities in the world. Recently restored, Sighnaghi offers visitors a blend of traditional charm and modern atmosphere. Strolling through its cobbled streets, you will see typical houses with wraparound wooden balconies and red terracotta roofs, all adding to the town's distinctive character. Sighnaghi is also renowned for its sweeping views of the Greater Caucasus Mountains.

After exploring the town and enjoying lunch, we continue our journey to the Georgian capital, Tbilisi.

Day 11 | Tbilisi

SUNDAY 16 MAY (B.L.D)

After breakfast and meeting with your guide it's time to see the 'City that loves you'. You can immediately feel that the capital of Georgia has a long history of multicultural relationships and is still the bridge between Europe and Asia. Walking through the old parts of the city you can sense its history and learn more about its special religious status: everyone is welcome. That's why you will see and visit different religious buildings: churches, synagogue, mosque. And not only religious buildings will capture your eye, but also the famous 19th century houses with colourful wooden balconies.

The city tour also goes to the statue of Mother Georgia and the old castle Narikala (4th century) from where you will be able to enjoy the great panoramic views over the city. In the National Museum we visit a treasury that hosts a unique, unknown collection, so this is a highlight that can't be missed. Another important place is the sulphur baths – well known to relax your mind after a long day full of impressions (we only see them from the outside).

Tonight, enjoy dinner at a local restaurant, accompanied by traditional Georgian music and lively folk dancing.

Day 12 | Tbilisi - Stepantsminda

MONDAY 17 MAY (B.L.D)

Today we travel to Mtskheta, Georgia's ancient capital and spiritual heart. It was here that Christianity was proclaimed the state religion in the 4th century following the arrival of St Nino, and the town remains one of the country's most important religious centres.

We visit two of Mtskheta's UNESCO World Heritage treasures, beginning with the hilltop Jvari Monastery, an early medieval church overlooking the town and offering magnificent views across the surrounding valleys. We then continue to the impressive 11th-century Svetitskhoveli Cathedral, one of Georgia's most sacred and architecturally significant churches.

Later, we leave the lowlands behind and journey north into the spectacular Greater Caucasus Mountains. Travelling along the Georgian Military Highway towards the mountain resort of Gudauri, we stop at the 17th-century Ananuri Fortress Complex, beautifully positioned overlooking the turquoise waters of the Zhinvali Reservoir.

Continuing higher into the mountains, we stop at the striking Friendship Monument near Gudauri. Perched dramatically above a deep gorge at an altitude of around 2,380 metres, the monument offers breathtaking panoramic views across the surrounding mountains and valleys.

After our visit, those who wish may enjoy the walk back down to Stepantsminda, taking in the magnificent mountain scenery along the way.

Later this afternoon, we enjoy a more personal local experience with a visit to a traditional artisan for a hands-on felt-making workshop. We learn about this centuries-old craft while enjoying a tasting of locally produced teas and jams – a lovely opportunity to experience some of the traditions and flavours of the region.

Today we explore one of Georgia's most remarkable historic sites – the extraordinary cave city of Vardzia. Carved into the cliffs during the 12th century, this vast complex was once hidden within the mountainside and developed into a thriving community of dwellings, churches, wine cellars and passageways. A powerful earthquake in the 13th century exposed much of the once-concealed city, revealing the fascinating network of caves that we see today. As we explore the complex, we discover hundreds of rooms connected by tunnels and stairways, offering a wonderful insight into life here during medieval times.

At the heart of Vardzia is the Church of the Dormition, renowned for its beautifully preserved 12th-century frescoes.
