Day 6 | Falmouth – Cornwall Excursion

SATURDAY 17 JULY (B,D)

From Falmouth, we explore the Cornish Peninsula enjoying stunning coastal views on a scenic drive to Penzance where we view St Michael's Mount. Down to Land's End, one of England's most famous landmarks and a place of stunning natural beauty, before we reach the picturesque village and artist colony of St Ives on the Atlantic Coast. We return to Falmouth later this afternoon.

Day 7 | Falmouth – Padstow Excursion

SUNDAY 18 JULY (B,L)

Our first visit today is to the Eden Project located near the village of St Austell. Its giant biomes - the largest greenhouses in the world - have become one of Cornwall's most celebrated landmarks. Tropical, temperate and desert environments have been recreated inside the biomes, so a single visit can carry you from the steaming rainforests of South America to the dry deserts of Northern Africa. Afterwards, our next visit is to the olde world fishing port of Padstow on the North Cornish coast. Here, we enjoy a very special luncheon at Rick Stein's original and signature restaurant, "The Seafood Restaurant" established way back in 1975.

NB: We are unable to confirm the restaurant booking until late December so if The Seafood Restaurant is unavailable, a suitable alternative will be booked.

Day 8 | Falmouth – Glastonbury – Bath

MONDAY 19 JULY (B,D)

Leaving Falmouth, we travel across Dartmoor National Park to Princetown, home to the infamous prison originally built to house the captives from the Napoleonic wars. Then to Glastonbury with a history all of its own but more recently famous for its 5 day music festival. Next up is the "city" of Wells with its magnificent cathedral and moated Bishop's palace. Medieval buildings and cobbled streets radiate out to the main marketplace which has been the bustling heart of the city for nine centuries. And finally to our overnight stay at the Roman city of Bath

Day 9 | Bath – Cotswolds – Stratford-Upon-Avon

TUESDAY 20 JULY (B,D)

Bath is a UNESCO World Heritage site and certainly one of the most interesting cities in the UK with a history dating back to Roman times. We spend the morning exploring the city and visit the restored Roman baths and the 15th century Abbey. Other highlights include the Royal Crescent and Pulteney Bridge. This afternoon, we drive north through the gentle rolling hill country of the Cotswold region. We pass through the market town of Cirencester and places with such interesting names as Bourton-On-Water, Stow-On-Wold and Moreton-On-Marsh. It is a beautiful part of England. Our destination today is Stratford-Upon-Avon where we stay for 2 nights.

Day 10 | Stratford-Upon-Avon

WEDNESDAY 21 JULY (B)

The town is known as the birthplace of William Shakespeare, perhaps the world's greatest ever playwright. During our morning tour we will visit many of the places of interest including Shakespeare's Birthplace, Halls Croft, Holy Trinity Church where the "bard" is buried along with his wife, and Anne Hathaway's Cottage where Anne was raised as a child. The remainder of the day is free to enjoy the town. Maybe later, you may wish to enjoy some Shakespearean Theatre at the RSC.

Day 11 | Stratford-Upon-Avon - Oxford

THURSDAY 22 JULY (B,D)

Leaving Stratford, we travel to the town of Woodstock for a visit to one of the most impressive of all English palaces and estates, Blenheim Palace, home to the 12th Duke and Duchess of Marlborough and birthplace of Winston Churchill. It is a truly remarkable masterpiece of 18th century Baroque architecture and sits among more than 2000 acres of extraordinary, landscaped parkland and formal gardens designed by "Capability Brown". Keeping with today's aristocratic theme, we will also try to schedule a stop at the town of Bampton where many of the outdoor scenes of "Downton Abbey" were filmed. Our home for the next 2 nights is the ancient university city of Oxford.

Day 12 | Oxford

FRIDAY 23 JULY (B)

Oxford University has a history of teaching that dates back to the 11th century making it the oldest university in the English speaking world. This morning, we enjoy a walking tour of the university area during which we learn about the collegiate system which is unique to Oxford and Cambridge. We visit Christ Church College, affectionately known as "the house" and originally founded by Cardinal Wolsey in 1529. Even today, its operation is a combination of church and college and boasts an internationally renowned cathedral choir as well as an important collection of Old Masters paintings. The remainder of the day is free. Maybe stroll the streets and lanes which have been brought to life in our living rooms through the television series of "Morse" and "Lewis".

Day 13 | Oxford – Southampton – Join Cruise

SATURDAY 24 JULY (B,D)

Late this morning, we transfer by coach to the port of Southampton where we join our floating home for the next 12 nights, the magnificent "Majestic Princess". Our ship departs at 4.00pm.

Falmouth, which boasts a superb deep-water harbour - the third largest in the world - shares the Cornish coast's colourful history of shipwrecks, smuggling, and privateering. Cornwall is scenic England at its best, with superb seascapes, picturesque harbours, and countryside of green fields and hedgerows, quaint villages and low-slung granite farmhouses. Cornwall's natural beauty has long made it a draw for British vacationers. Note: Your ship will anchor in Falmouth and use launches to transport all passengers ashore. Day 15 | Cork, Ireland

MONDAY 26 JULY (B,L,D)

Founded in the 7th century by St. Fin Barre, Cork is your gateway to romantic Ireland. Stroll down narrow country lanes or see the Lakes of Killarney. The intrepid visitor may scale the narrow passages of Blarney Castle to kiss the Blarney Stone. The region around Cork is also home to one of the densest concentration of prehistoric monuments in Western Europe. In a land where fable and fact blend to become folklore, it was near Cork that the great Tuatha De Danaan, a race with magical powers, was driven underground by the conquering Celts. Cobh where we dock was the single most important port of emigration from Ireland. Arrives 7.00am, Departs 6.00pm.

Day 16 | Dublin, Ireland

TUESDAY 27 JULY (B,L,D)

Dublin has experienced a renaissance. Today, this gracious and cosmopolitan city on the Liffey is one of Europe's premier destinations. The capital of the Republic of Ireland, Dublin is an intimate place that is easy to explore. Stroll past St. Stephen's Green or survey the grey, stone façades of Trinity College, Ireland's oldest university. The city is also remarkably well-preserved - every June 16, scholars retrace the paths of James Joyce's characters in the novel "Ulysses," set in Dublin on June 16, 1904. Dublin possesses a storied history. A settlement has existed on the banks of the River Liffey for at least a millennium and a half. Succeeding waves of Gaelic, Viking, Norman and English invaders have left their mark on the city. Note – we dock in Dun Laoghaire, a tender port located an approximate 30 minute drive from Dublin.

Arrives 7.00am, Departs 7.00pm

Day 17 | Liverpool, England

WEDNESDAY 28 JULY (BL,D)

This great industrial port grew to prominence as a result of trade with the Americas. That tradition continued in the '60s as the Beatles mounted the first wave of rock 'n' roll's "British Invasion". Liverpool is home to two of the finest neoclassical buildings in Europe. At nearby Port Sunlight, magnate William Lever built a model industrial village and created the Lady Lever Gallery. The museum is home to a superb collection of English paintings and furniture.

Stretching along both sides of the River Lagan, this graceful city of Victorian and Edwardian buildings has become a cosmopolitan tourist destination. Among those who have called the city home are the writers, Robert Burns, James Boswell, and Sir Walter Scott and the philosophers, Adam Smith and David Hume. To stroll the streets of Edinburgh is to experience one of the world's great cities.

The port was nearly completely destroyed during the Normandy campaign. Today, Le Havre is France's second largest port and the gateway to Paris, "City of Light," the Norman countryside, and the historic landing beaches.
