Here we also have the opportunity to see the historic Quran associated with Caliph Osman.

We also visit the renowned Rakhimov family ceramic workshop, where we learn about the traditional techniques used to create their distinctive ceramics. There will be an opportunity to try your hand at the potter's wheel and learn about the firing, glazing and painting process.

We finish with a stroll through the colourful Chorsu Bazaar, a wonderful place to experience the sights, sounds and everyday life of Tashkent.

Day 11 | Tashkent - Dushanbe

SATURDAY 05 JUNE (B,D)

This morning we transfer to the airport for our flight to Dushanbe. Meaning "Monday" in Persian, Dushanbe takes its name from the weekly market once held here each Monday. From its beginnings as a small market village, the city grew considerably during the Soviet era to become the capital and economic centre of Tajikistan.

Our sightseeing begins at the Ismoili Somoni Monument, an impressive 40-metre-high monument honouring the founder of the Samanid dynasty. We continue to the Dushanbe Flagpole, which at 165 metres held the Guinness World Record as the world's tallest flagpole when it was completed in 2011. We also visit the Rudaki Museum and explore the old town of Penjikent before continuing our journey to Samarkand.

Day 14 | Samarkand

TUESDAY 08 JUNE (B,D)

Samarkand is one of the oldest cities in Central Asia, with a history stretching back more than 2,700 years. Once an important crossroads between East and West, the city flourished along the Great Silk Road and today is home to an extraordinary collection of historic monuments, mosques and mausoleums.

Today we explore this legendary city, beginning at magnificent Registan Square, which for centuries formed the heart of Samarkand. Here we see three impressive madrasahs: the Ulugbek Madrasah (15th century), Tilya-Kori Madrasah (17th century) and Sher-Dor Madrasah (17th century). We then visit Gur Emir, the magnificent mausoleum of the great conqueror Tamerlane.

This evening, we enjoy dinner at a traditional local house followed by a light show.

Day 15 | Samarkand - Bukhara

Humans have lived in the region for at least five millennia, and the city itself has existed for about half that time.

Located along the Silk Road, Bukhara has long been a thriving center of trade, scholarship, culture, and religion. Our city tour in Bukhara will include the magnificent architectural complex of Poi Kalon, featuring the Kalon Minaret, the Kalon Mosque, and the Mir-Arab Madrasah. We will also visit the Toki Zargaron trading domes and the Magok-i-Attori Mosque.

This morning, we visit a lively oriental bazaar filled with traditional colours, spices and aromas. We then continue our exploration of Bukhara, discovering some of the city's beautiful mosques, madrasahs and historic monuments.

Highlights include the Ark Citadel, the Mausoleum of the Samanids, Chor Minor Madrasah and Lyabi Khauz Square, one of the most atmospheric areas of Bukhara. Centred around a tranquil pond, the square is surrounded by historic buildings and is also home to a monument honouring Khoja Nasreddin, a beloved figure in Central Asian folklore. Later, we visit the Chashma-Ayub Mausoleum and Bolo Haouz Mosque.

This evening, we enjoy a folklore show at the Nadir Divan Begi Madrasah.

Day 17 | Bukhara - Khiva

FRIDAY 11 JUNE (B,D)

We continue our journey to Khiva, travelling through the Kizilkum Desert — the "red sands" — which once carried invaders, nomadic hordes and the armies of the Persians, Alexander the Great and Genghis Khan.

Khiva, once part of ancient Khorezm on the Great Silk Road, is today a remarkable open-air museum and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. At its heart is the beautifully preserved walled old city of Ichan-Kala, home to an extraordinary collection of historic palaces, mosques, madrasahs, minarets and mausoleums. Surrounded by imposing ancient walls, its narrow streets and monumental architecture offer a wonderful glimpse into Khiva's past as an important trading centre along the Silk Road.

After crossing the border, we continue to Dashoguz, where we visit a vibrant local market, offering an interesting glimpse into everyday life, along with the Dashoguz Regional Museum, which provides an insight into the history and culture of the region.

We enjoy dinner together before transferring to the airport for our evening flight to Ashgabat.

Day 20 | Ashgabat

MONDAY 14 JUNE (B,D)

Enjoy a city tour of Ashgabat — recognized by the Guinness Book of World Records as the world's most white-marble city (even its telephone booths are clad in marble!). Ashgabat, the capital of Turkmenistan, sits atop the world's fourth-largest natural gas reserves and is often described as one of the world's most secluded cities. Our tour will take us through the city centre, the lively Russian Bazaar, the striking Ertogrul Gazi Mosque, Independence Park, the Neutrality Arch, the Constitution Monument, the Ferris Wheel, a viewpoint at the Wedding Palace and Halk Hakydasy Memorial Complex.

Day 21 | Ashgabat – Mary/Merv - Ashgabat

We also visit the Russian Orthodox Church, an interesting reminder of the city's more recent past.

This afternoon we continue to Ancient Merv. Founded more than 2,500 years ago, Merv flourished at the crossroads of civilisations and empires and became an important centre of trade, culture and learning. Conquered by Alexander the Great, shaped by Persian rulers and later flourishing under the Seljuk Turks, the city became one of the great centres of the medieval world. Its fortunes changed dramatically with the arrival of the Mongols in the 13th century. Today, its vast archaeological site contains the remains of ancient fortresses, mausoleums and city walls, offering a fascinating insight into Merv's extraordinary past.

After a long but rewarding day, we transfer to Mary Airport for our flight back to Ashgabat.

Day 22 | Ashgabat

Its extensive collection traces Turkmenistan's remarkable history through the ages, with ancient artefacts, archaeological discoveries, traditional crafts and treasures from some of the country's earliest settlements.

We continue to Nisa, one of Turkmenistan's most important archaeological sites. Set against the foothills of the Kopet Dag Mountains, this ancient settlement offers a fascinating glimpse into the powerful civilisations that once flourished in this part of Central Asia.

Returning to Ashgabat, we visit the impressive Turkmenbashi Ruhi Mosque and Mausoleum, before continuing to an Akhal-Teke horse centre. Considered one of the world's oldest and most distinctive horse breeds, the elegant Akhal-Teke has been closely associated with the people and culture of Turkmenistan for thousands of years and is renowned for its beauty, endurance and distinctive metallic sheen.
